Appellant

v.

United States Postal Service,
Agency.

Docket No. DC-0752-11-0880-I-1

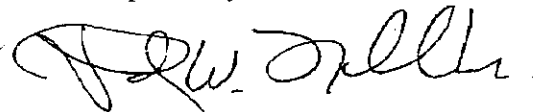

AJ: Turbitt

Date: October 11, 2011

Appellant's Unopposed Motion to Postpone Hearing.

For the reasons stated in the accompanying declaration, appellant moves for a postponement of the hearing presently scheduled for October 19, 2011. Before bringing this motion appellant contacted the agency, which indicated that it would not oppose the motion.

Respectfully submitted,

David W. Noble, Jr.

October 11, 2011 Declaration of David W. Noble, Jr.

I, David W. Noble, Jr., make this declaration based on personal knowledge:

1. By order dated September 27, 2011 the Administrative Judge set a hearing for October 19, 2011 for Noble v. U.S. Postal Service. I will require more time to take discovery and prepare my case than would be allowed by an October 19th hearing. Therefore, I request that the Administrative Judge postpone the hearing until after discovery has been taken and any issues pertaining thereto have been resolved.

2. I served written interrogatories and requests for production of documents on the Postal Service on September 12, 2011. Those discovery requests were made within the time limits prescribed by the Acknowledgment Order and by 5 C.F.R. § 1201.73(f)(1). Under MSPB regulations the Postal Service had up to twenty days to respond, or until October 2, 2011.

3. Based on my extensive experience litigating against Stephen W. Furgeson, I expected that the Postal Service's response to my discovery requests would be late and incomplete. I was correct. The agency served its refusal to comply with any of my discovery requests on October 4, 2011. I will, therefore, have to file a motion to compel discovery – a process that, in my experience, usually takes the better part of a month.

4. I intend to serve follow-up requests for discovery including notices of deposition and requests for admission within ten days, as provided by 5 C.F.R. § 1201.73(f)(2), or by October 14, 2011. The Postal Service will have up to twenty days to respond, or until about November 4, 2011. As with the first discovery request I expect the follow-up to result in a motion to compel discovery, which will probably take until Thanksgiving or later to resolve.

5. After I have received the discovery material I will need about a week to integrate the material into the presentation I am planning for the hearing. Based on all of the above I expect to be ready to proceed by sometime in December. I request, therefore, that the Administrative Judge postpone the hearing scheduled for October 19th and reschedule the hearing after discovery has been concluded.

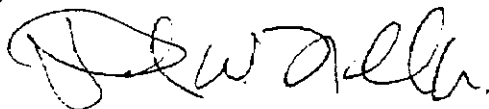

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on October 11, 2011.
